

Table of Contents

Preface	xxv
Introduction	xxix
List of Contributors	xxxv
Thematic Outline	liii

A

ACT UP	1
The founding, achievements, international impact, and demise of this important AIDS activist group. Sidebar: ACT UP in Europe
Activism in Africa South of the Sahara	8
The history and current state of LGBTQI activism in Africa, including challenges and victories.
Adoption and Surrogacy in Europe	16
The availability and legal rights surrounding the issues of adoption and surrogacy for European LGBT persons.
Adoption, Fostering, and Surrogacy (International)	20
The legal and social challenges LGBTQ adults face to access intercountry adoption and surrogacy, as well as challenges LGBTQ youth face when rejected from their families.
Aestheticism and Decadence, Nineteenth-Century ...	26
The important figures and works of these interrelated cultural movements that explored queer and erotic themes around the end of the nineteenth century.

African Commission on Human and Peoples' Rights	35
The role of this human rights organization in advocating for LGBTQ individuals in Africa. Sidebar: The Commission Condemns Violence and Discrimination against LGBTQ Persons
Afropop Music	38
A type of popular music on the African continent, and the ways LGBT artists are using it both to resist social oppression and promote tolerance.
AIDS Memorial Quilt—The NAMES Project	40
The development and cultural impact of this famous memorial to those who have died from AIDS.
Al-Akharun (2006; Seba al-Herz)	44
Saudi Arabian novel narrated by a disabled Shi'a woman struggling to reconcile her religious faith with her nonnormative sexual identity.
alQaws	48
Palestinian organization that promotes queer acceptance combined with advocacy against Israeli pinkwashing.
Amer, Ghada (1963–)	51
Egyptian artist whose work challenges conventional representations of women, particularly in its depictions of same-sex desire.

Australia and New Zealand	165	BDSM (Bondage and Discipline, Dominance and Submission, Sadism and Masochism)	210
The history of the struggle for Australasian LGBTI rights, as well as the increased political and cultural impact of this community from the late twentieth century onward.		The LGBTQ expression of these alternative sexual practices.
'Awdat al-Almani ilā Rushdih (2006; Rashid al-Daif)	177	Benga, François “Féral” (1906–1957)	218
Representations of homosexuality and the narrator’s struggles with shifting notions of gender and sexuality in this novelized biography.		Senegalese cabaret dancer whose sensuality was perceived as a symbol of homoeroticism in both Paris and the United States in the 1930s.
B		El Beso de la Mujer Araña (1976; Manuel Puig)...	220
El Baile de los 41	183	Argentine novel that upends normative storytelling and normative sexuality while giving marginal subjectivities a voice.
A 1901 scandal in which a raid of a party in Mexico City revealed cross-dressing men in attendance, and its subsequent impact on Mexican culture.		Bhutan	222
Bakla	187	The status of the LGBT community in Bhutan. Sidebar: Lhak-Sam, Bhutan’s Network for HIV-Positive People
A term used in the Philippines for an effeminate man or a homosexual.		Biological Essentialism	224
Barbin, Herculine (1838–1868)	190	The assumption that human behavior is caused by an immutable biological trait despite evidence of sociocultural factors, discussed here as it relates to sexual orientation.
One of the most famous hermaphrodites of the nineteenth century, and the scholarly debate inspired by her life.		Black Freedom Movement and Sexuality	230
Bareed Mista3jil: True Stories (2009).....	192	LGBTQ participation in the movement to secure human rights for African Americans in the 1960s and 1970s.
A collection of autobiographical narratives written by Lebanese lesbians and one trans man.		Blackmail	236
Bars and Cabarets in Europe	196	The use of blackmail by and against those engaging in same-sex acts from the fourteenth century to contemporary times.
The development of drinking establishments throughout Europe that specifically serve gay and lesbian customers. Sidebar: Eldorado		The Body Politic	239
Bars, Working-Class, in Mexico	199	Groundbreaking Canadian gay liberation magazine published between 1971 and 1987.
Notable establishments in various Mexican cities where classes mix in a sexually diverse environment.		Bom-Crioulo (1895; Adolfo Ferreira Caminha) ...	243
Bathroom Raids, Toronto (1981)	202	A naturalist novel dealing with race, homosexuality, and crime in Rio de Janeiro.
Police crackdown on Toronto’s gay bathhouses and the ensuing mobilization of LGBTQ activism in response.		Bookstores	247
Bayrūt ’75 (1975; Ghāda al-Sammān).....	207	The history of LGBTQ+-themed bookstores, including their unique role as activist centers and community spaces. Sidebar: Gay’s the Word Bookshop
Arabic novel in which homosexuality is depicted as a by-product of national violence and class inequity.		Boston Marriage and Women’s Romantic Friendships	254
		Long-term, financially independent relationships between women in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries.

Botswana	259	Cavafy, C. P. (1863–1933)	305
A historical and contemporary look at LGBTQ issues in this southern African nation.		Greek poet whose homoerotic works made him a queer icon.
Boys Love (Yaoi) Manga	262	Central American Solidarity Movement	310
A media genre that originated in Japan depicting male-male romantic and sexual relationships, initially created by females for a female audience.		LGBTQ participation in this transnational movement that was active from the mid-1970s to the early 1990s. Sidebar: Victoria Mercado Brigade
Brokeback Mountain	268	Chechnya, Detention Camps in	315
The 1997 short story and 2005 movie adaptation about a homosexual relationship between two ranch hands in Wyoming.		The imprisonment of men in the Russian republic of Chechnya for alleged homosexuality.
The Bubble (2006; Eytan Fox)	270	Chevalier d'Éon or Mademoiselle
Israeli film portraying a complex romantic relationship between an Israeli man and a Palestinian man in Tel Aviv.		Beaumont (1728–1810)	318
Butt Magazine	275	The colorful life of the famous eighteenth-century French cross-dresser.
A post-pornographic fanzine for gay hipsters.		Christianity in Africa: Anglican	319
		The position of the Anglican Communion in Africa on sexual minorities.
C
Cabaret Theater in Latin America and the Caribbean	279	Christianity in Africa: LGBT Friendly	324
The use of cabaret as political statement by Latin American and Caribbean LGBT artists. Sidebar: Jesusa Rodriguez (1955–)		Christian churches and ministries in Africa that specifically cater to the LGBT community. Sidebar: Desmond Tutu (1931–)
Cabo Verde	284	Christianity in Africa: Pentecostal and Charismatic	326
The status of the LGBT community, both historically and into modern times, on this island nation off the west coast of Africa.		The impact of these influential religious expressions on LGBTQ issues in Africa.
Cameroon	287	Christianity in Africa: Roman Catholicism	330
The current state of the LGBTQ population in this Central African nation, including the influence of religion, politics, and activism.		The position of the Roman Catholic Church in Africa on sexual minorities.
Camp	290	Cinema, African (Anglophone)	332
An elusive term, often used to describe a particular mode of behavior or way of being in the gay community that is associated with flamboyancy, affectation, vulgarity, and effeminacy.		Representations of same-sex desire in English-language films made in Africa or by directors of African descent. Sidebar: Nollywood Sidebar: Rafiki (2018; Wanuri Kahiu)
Canadian Criminal Code Reform (1969)	295	Cinema, African (Francophone)	343
Changes to Canada's criminal code in 1969 that included the partial decriminalization of certain homosexual acts.		LGBT representation in French-language African films. Sidebar: Karmen Gei (2001; Joseph Gai Ramaka)
Cape Town	299	Cinema, Latin American (Early Twentieth Century)	347
The South African port city known as the Gay Capital of Africa.		The influence of the Latin American film industry and film spectatorship on identity formation through the mid-twentieth century.
Carnival and Sexuality in Brazil	302
The intersections and contradictions of Carnival and queer expression.

Cinema, Latin American (Late Twentieth and Twenty-First Centuries) 351	Communism and Queers in Europe 399
Six films from the late twentieth century and twenty-first century that illustrate the trajectory of LGBTQ themes and characters in Latin American cinema.	The treatment of LGBTQ individuals under European leftist regimes from the late nineteenth century through the dissolution of the Soviet Union in 1991.
Cisgender or Cis 357	Compton’s Cafeteria Riot (1966) 403
A term used to describe people whose gender identity is congruent with the sex/gender assigned to them at birth, or non-transgender.	The first collective protest action by transgender people to lead to structural change in the ability of trans people to interact with law and society.
Classical Studies 364	Confessional Manuals in Colonial Latin America 406
The ways in which scholars from the Middle Ages to modern times used examples from Greek and Roman antiquity to advance the study of queer desire.	Confessional manuals as religious guides used by priests to teach indigenous peoples the meaning of “sin” in relation to bodily desires and lustful thoughts.
Clitoris 367	Conquest and Sodomy in Latin America 415
The medical and cultural view of this female sexual organ, its role in sexual pleasure, the ways it can be modified, and its relation to intersex and trans bodies.	The Spaniards’ use of the charge of sodomy against the indigenous populations of the New World as justification for conquest.
The Closet 372	Conversion Therapy in China 418
The development of the concept of this term for homosexuals who have not publicly identified with their sexuality and its application in various cultures.	The use of medical, psychological, and psychiatric treatment to “convert” LGBTQ individuals to heterosexuals in China.
Cold War and Sexuality in Latin America 379	Côte d’Ivoire 422
The methods by which both leftist and rightist governments in Latin American countries addressed the perceived threat posed by nonnormative sexualities during this era of heightened geopolitical tension.	A historical and contemporary look at sexual and gender minorities in this West African nation. Sidebar: Woubi Chéri (1998; Philip Brooks, Laurent Bocahut)
Colonialism in Africa South of the Sahara 384	Cross-Dressing in the West 424
The impact of colonialism on the development of laws and cultural attitudes toward same-sex practices in Africa.	European and American scholarly discourse on cross-dressing from the late nineteenth century to contemporary times.
Combahee River Collective 390	Cruising and Cruising Grounds 428
Black lesbian feminist organization formed in Boston in 1974.	A historical and contemporary look at the spaces and behaviors that facilitate clandestine public sexual encounters in gay and lesbian culture.
Coming-Out/Coming-In Discourses in the Middle East 394	The Cuban Revolution and Homosexuality 432
The Western pride narrative and its alternative for Middle Eastern LGBT individuals.	The Castro regime’s policy toward and treatment of homosexuals. Sidebar: Sexilio and Migration Sidebar: Fresa y Chocolate (1993; Tomás Gutiérrez Alea and Juan Carlos Tabío)
Comité d’Urgence Anti-répression Homosexuelle (CUARH) 397
An umbrella activist organization of gay and lesbian groups operating in France between 1979 and 1986.
	D
	Darnell v. Lloyd (1975) 439
	The first federal court decision in favor of a constitutional claim to a birth certificate sex-designation change in the absence of a statute contemplating such changes.

Daughters of Bilitis 443
The first women’s organization in the United States to directly address issues of female same-sex sexuality and gender.

Defense of Marriage Act (1996) 447
The passing and overturning of the US federal law essentially banning same-sex marriage.

Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders (DSM) 452
The history of the classification of nonnormative sexual behaviors and identities in the diagnostic manual of the American Psychiatric Association.

Diasporas, Queer 457
Ways of critically thinking about the queer diaspora and how it is unique from other types of diasporas.

Digital Cultures in Latin America 461
The Latin American LGBTQ community’s use of the internet and digital tools to create community, promote dialogue, and advocate for LGBTQ rights.
Sidebar: Walter Mercado: Queer Digital Icon

Dissidence in Singapore 468
The ways in which queer activists navigate the authoritarian laws of the city-state of Singapore, particularly through performance art.
Sidebar: Hong Lim Park: A Center of LGBT Dissidence

Al-Dizil (1994; Thani al-Suwaidi) 474
A transgender Arabic novella.

Drag, Asian 478
The various forms of Asian drag, their reception in Asia and elsewhere, and their cultural impact.
Sidebar: Asifa Lahore

Dyketactics! 483
Radical activist organization of lesbians of all colors, active in Philadelphia in the 1970s.

E

Ecology and Environmental Issues and Activism 487
The intersection between LGBTQ and environmental activism.

Egyvásra Nézve (1982; Károly Makk) 492
The first and only movie made in communist east-central Europe to deal centrally with the topic of lesbianism.

Einayim Pkubot (2009; Haim Tabakman) 495
Israeli film depicting a homosexual relationship within the ultra-Orthodox Haredi Jewish community.

Elbe, Lili (1882–1931) 500
One of the first people to undergo surgical sexual transition, in 1930 and 1931, and how this example complicates assumptions about the concept of “transgender.”

Erauso, Catalina de (1592–1650) 502
A noblewoman who escaped life in a Spanish convent to live as a man and a soldier in the New World during the sixteenth century, popularly known as La Monja Alférez (The Lieutenant Nun).

Ethiopia 505
The history and current status of the LGBTI community in this East African nation.

Ethnopedagogy 507
An interpretation of indigenous intimate activities in which such activities are framed according to Western sexual categories.

Ethnopsychiatry 510
The systemic psychological study of “non-Western” peoples, particularly as it relates to Africans and homosexuality.
Sidebar: Frantz Fanon (1925–1961)

Eunuchs 514
The role of the castrated male in various cultures throughout history.

Eurovision Song Contest 522
The popularity of this Europe-based, international singing competition and its unofficial status as a queer institution.

F

Family Law in Asia 527
The legacy of colonialism on laws governing marriage, property, and families in Asian countries, and its impact on Asian LGBTQ individuals.

Ghana	612	Hemispheric Institute Digital Video Library	651
The history and current status of sexual minorities in this West African country.		Description of the online archive of videos documenting the artistic expression of social and political life in the Americas, with a particular focus on its queer content.
Ghilman	615	Hena Maysara (2007; Khaled Youssef)	657
A term for a type of male slave or servant during the era of Islamic caliphates, sometimes depicted as the homosexual “beloved” in classical Arabic literature.		Egyptian film that shocked many with its depiction of a lesbian encounter.
Graffiti and Graphic Art	618	Higher Education and LGBTQ+ Communities in the United States	661
The history and current use of these artistic media in queer public expressions.		The relationship between US institutions of higher learning and their LGBTQ+ students and staff, both historically and in the twenty-first century.
Groupe du 6 Novembre: lesbiennes Issues du Colonialisme, de l’Esclavage et de l’Immigration	623	Hijras	666
The first heterogeneous autonomous self-declared lesbian of color group in contemporary France, founded in 1999.		A fluid term used on the Indian subcontinent to reference iconic figures of sexual and gendered difference.
Grupo de Trabalho Homossexual and LES	625	Historical Sexes	671
Two prominent LGBTQ advocacy organizations in Portugal.		Counting the sexes and the invention of gender in history.
Grupo Gay da Bahia	628	HIV/AIDS	677
Brazilian organization for LGBTTTQI activism.		Myths and conspiracy theories about the origin of AIDS, as well as efforts to raise awareness.
H		HIV/AIDS in Africa	687
Hajar al-Dahik (1990; Hoda Barakat)	631	The status of HIV/AIDS prevention strategies and activism in Africa as they relate to LGBTQ communities, with a particular focus on South Africa, Malawi, and Uganda.
One of the first novels in Arabic to have a gay protagonist.		Sidebar: Most-at-Risk Populations (MARPs) Sidebar: Zackie Achmat and the Treatment Action Campaign
Halat Shaghaf (1998; Nihad Sirees)	635	HIV/AIDS in Egyptian Cinema	704
A Syrian novel that includes the story of a collective of women who offer an alternative to normative heterosexuality during the 1930s in Aleppo.		The various ways in which Egyptian film has dealt with the topic of HIV/AIDS and how these reflect Middle Eastern cultural views of the disease.
Harlem Renaissance	638	HIV/AIDS in Europe	708
The queer side of the social and cultural movement centered in the black neighborhood of Harlem in the 1920s and 1930s.		The responses to the AIDS epidemic and the impact of gay activism in various European communities.
Hate Crime Law and Policy in the United States	644	HIV/AIDS in Latin America and the Caribbean	716
The development of US laws against crimes that target persons because of their particular status group, with a focus on legislation protecting LGBTQ persons.		The social and government response to the HIV/AIDS epidemic in this region, including the close relationship between AIDS-related activism and LGBT activism.
Helem	651
The first official LGBTQ+ rights organization in the Middle East.

Sidebar: Herbert Daniel (1946–1992): Brazilian AIDS Activist
HIV/AIDS in South and Southeast Asia	726
The interplay of national governments, HIV-management programs/NGOs, and at-risk populations in South and Southeast Asia.
HIV/AIDS in the United States	734
The history of the HIV/AIDS epidemic, its impact on the American LGBTQ community, and activist response.
Homoerotic Poetry of Abū Nuwās	743
Homoerotic works by the ninth-century Arabic poet.
Homoeroticism in the Plays of Ibn Daniyal	747
Three farces by the thirteenth-century Egyptian court poet generally recognized as the first major writer in Arab culture to create works centrally concerned with homoerotic themes.
Homonationalism in Africa	750
A particular form of gay advocacy that frames gay rights in nationalistic terms that privilege American and European expressions over those of the Middle East and the Global South, particularly Africa.
Homosexual Acts in Shari‘a	755
Perspectives on same-sex sexual activity in Islamic sacred texts.
Human Rights	759
The struggle for recognition of LGBTQ rights from a transnational perspective.
Human Rights and Activism in Latin America ...	767
The geopolitical context that defines the relationship between LGBT activism and human rights in Latin America in the twentieth century.
Human Rights and Queer Arab Refugees	775
The challenges queer Arab refugees face post-Arab Spring.
Human Rights Campaign	781
The largest LGBTQ organization in the United States as of 2017.
Human Rights in Asia	784
The history and current state of LGBTQ rights in South Asia, East Asia, and Southeast Asia.
Human Rights in Europe	789
Important cases decided by the European Court of Human Rights and the European Court of Justice related to LGBTQ issues.
Sidebar: The European Parliament
Sidebar: The Holocaust and LGBT Victims
I
I Luv U But (2012–2014; Fadia Abboud)	801
Australian web TV series showing how culture, family, and honor affect gays and lesbians in religious families in the Arab diaspora.
Imarat Ya‘kubian (2002; Alaa al-Aswany)	805
Egyptian novel that features a gay character.
Imperialism and Colonialism	809
The regulation and expression of same-sex sexual dynamics, particularly in terms of the effects of Western imperialism during the nineteenth century.
Inquisition, Criminal Courts, and Sexuality in Colonial Latin America	818
The role the Spanish and Portuguese Inquisitions played in defining and policing sexuality in the New World, particularly with regard to same-sex acts and desires.
Institut für Sexualwissenschaft	823
Pioneering institute for sexual research founded by the famous German sexologist Magnus Hirschfeld.
Internet in Africa	827
The role of websites and social media in the lives of African LGBTQ individuals.
Internet Queer Sites in the Middle East	831
Descriptions of various current and defunct websites and blogs dealing with LGBTQI issues in the Middle East.
Sidebar: Excerpt from A Gay Girl in Damascus Blog
Intersex Identities	836
An umbrella term to describe those whose anatomical, chromosomal, and hormonal deviations result in sex-atypical development.
Involuntary Servitude and Same-Sex Sexuality in Africa	840
Examples of same-sex sexual practices in involuntary servitude in African history.

- ISIS Gay Trials..... 844
The atrocities committed against gay men by those affiliated with the jihadist group known as the Islamic State of Iraq and Syria.

- Iskandariyya ... Leh?* (1979; Youssef Chahine) .. 847
Egyptian movie that includes a subplot of a same-sex encounter between an Egyptian and a British soldier.

- Islam in Africa South of the Sahara..... 851
The status of those with nonnormative sexual identities in African Muslim communities.

J

- Jamaica Forum for Lesbians, All-Sexuals and Gays (J-FLAG)..... 857
LGBT advocacy organization based in Jamaica.

- Jannāt wa-Iblīs* (1992; Nawal El Saadawi) 858
Depiction of lesbianism and female subversiveness in this modern Arabic novel.

- Jotería Studies 863
An academic field evolving at the intersection of Chicanx, Latinx, queer of color, and transgender studies.

K

- Kathoey 869
A complex Thai term most commonly used to refer to male-bodied individuals who express a feminine gender and seek relations with heterosexually identified male partners.

- Kenya..... 874
A historical and contemporary look at LGBTQ issues in this East African nation.

- Khookha McQueer (1987–) 878
Tunisian genderqueer digital artist and performer.

- Kinsey Scale..... 881
A metric for describing the spectrum of human sexuality across a seven-point scale, developed by sex researcher Alfred C. Kinsey in 1940.

- Kinship in Europe 885
Family models used by LGBTQI persons in Europe.

L

- Lambda Legal Defense and Education Fund..... 891
The first organization in the United States established to protect and advance the civil rights of LGBT and HIV-positive persons.

- Language..... 894
The use and study of specialized terminology by LGBTQ+ communities throughout the world.
Sidebar: Moffie

- Language in Africa..... 903
Terms used to describe nonnormative sexualities in Africa, which are complicated by Western hegemony.
Sidebar: Hungochani
Sidebar: Kuchu

- Language in Europe 909
The development and use of queer-specific words and phrases by the LGBTQ communities of Europe.

- Language in Latin America 913
Stigmatized terms for nonnormative gender and sexual identities in Latin America, and how the LGBTQ community is resignifying them.

- Lavender Menace 919
An informal lesbian feminist collective formed in New York City in 1969 to advocate for lesbians within the women's liberation movement.

- Lavender Scare..... 922
A Cold War campaign targeting gay people in the US government for reasons of national security that paralleled the anti-Communist campaign known as the Second Red Scare.

- Lebanese* (2008; Alissar Gazal)..... 925
Short documentary spotlighting the struggle of the women of Lebanon and their burgeoning sexual identities.

- Lesbian Feminist Encuentros of Latin America and the Caribbean..... 928
The development and early years of lesbian feminist organizing in Latin America via encuentros, or conferences, starting in 1987.

- Lesbian Herstory Archives 932
The oldest, largest historical collection of lesbian material in the world.

Lesbian Lands, Women's Lands, and Separatist Communes	934	Mädchen in Uniform (1931; Leontine Sagan)	983
The development of communities by and for the exclusive use of women for the exploration of sexual identity and feminist politics in the United States.		Weimar German film that was one of the first to portray lesbianism on-screen.
Lesbian Mothering and Adoption in Latin America	938	Maghreb	985
The status of lesbian-headed families in Latin America against the backdrop of the greater LGBTQI movement in the region.		The historical and modern European perceptions of the geographic region of North Africa as an exotic land steeped in homoeroticism.
The Lesbian Music Movement	942	Sidebar: Tangier
The development, heyday, and decline of a grassroots movement to create and showcase music made by lesbian artists for women-only audiences.		Malaysia	990
Literary Discourses in the Ottoman Middle East (1500–1900)	948	The status of LGBTQ rights in this Southeast Asian country, including major Malaysian literary and cinematic works on LGBTQ themes.
Homosexual elements in the literature of this Islamic empire.		Marches on Washington	993
Literature, African (Anglophone)	952	The series of national marches on the US capital by the LGBTQ community between 1979 and 2017.
English-language African literature that features gender variance and same-sex sexuality.		Marriage Migration in Asia	997
Sidebar: No Past, No Present, No Future (1973; Yulisa Amadu Maddy)		The migration of LGBTQ persons for reasons of marriage between Asian countries.
Sidebar: One Day I Will Write about This Place (2011; Binyavanga Wainaina)		Marriage, Same-Sex, in Latin America	1001
Literature, African (Francophone)	964	The history of the struggle to legalize same-sex marriage in the countries of Argentina, Brazil, Colombia, Mexico, and Uruguay.
French-language African literature that features gender variance and same-sex sexuality.		Marriage, Same-Sex, in Taiwan	1004
Sidebar: Le Devoir de Violence (1968; Yambo Ouologuem)		The path to LGBT marriage equality in Taiwan, which became the first Asian country to recognize this right in 2017.
Sidebar: Femme Nue, Femme Noire (2003; Calixthe Beyala)		Marriage, Universal, in Europe	1008
Literature, Caribbean (Anglophone and Creole) ..	971	The legal and political landscape influencing recognition of same-sex couples, either in marriage or state-recognized partnerships.
The work of English- and Creole-speaking queer Caribbean authors to increase visibility of nonnormative sexualities in the region.		Sidebar: Pacte Civil de Solidarité (PACS)
Literature, Caribbean (Francophone)	976	Marriage, Woman-Woman, in Africa	1014
The work of Francophone queer Caribbean authors to increase visibility of nonnormative sexualities in the region.		Institutionalized same-sex relationships between women in various African cultures.
		Masculinity in Iranian Cinema	1018
		Portrayals of luti , shahid , fokoli , and other masculine archetypes from the Pahlavi era to contemporary times.
		Mattachine Society	1023
		The first major homosexual political organization in the United States.
		Medicine, Complementary and Alternative	1026
		The history of queer engagement in medical practices beyond conventional Western medicine.

M

Madame Satã (1900–1976)	981
The colorful life of the Brazilian street hustler and drag performer of early twentieth-century Rio de Janeiro.

Meem 1030	Mongolia 1083
Activist and support group for queer women and trans people in Lebanon from 2007 to 2014.	The state of LGBTQI rights in this landlocked East Asian country historically and in the twenty-first century.
Metelkova Mesto (Slovenia) 1033	Mozambique 1086
A center for artistic subculture and queer life in Ljubljana.	The history and current status of LGBTI persons in this East African country.
Mexican Revolution and Sexuality 1035	MSM (Men Who Have Sex with Men) in Asia .. 1089
The impact of the 1910 revolution on Mexican gender norms.	An umbrella term used for men who have sex with men, regardless of whether they identify as “gay,” and its complex usage in Asia.
Migrant Queer Communities, US 1039	Mufākharat al-Jawāri wa-al-Ghilmān (al-Jāhiz) ... 1092
The cultural perceptions of, and challenges facing, queer migrants to the United States historically and in the twenty-first century.	Ninth-century CE work by the famous Abbasid polymath in which two characters debate the pleasures of sex with men versus sex with women.
Migration to Europe 1045	Mukhannath 1095
The history of, reasons for, and challenges to LGBT migration to Europe.	A male person who displays feminine traits in the Islamic world during the era of the caliphates.
Militarism and Sexualities in the Asia-Pacific Region 1054	Museo Travesti del Perú 1097
The policies of various countries in Asia regarding the inclusion of LGBT individuals in their armed forces.	An itinerant museum created by trans artist Giuseppe Campuzano that was the first to provide a comprehensive history of cross-dressing, queerness, and gender-bending in Peru.
Military Law and Policy in the United States .. 1057	Museums and Memorials 1101
The evolution of military law and policy regarding LGBTI persons serving in the US armed forces.	Significant LGBTQ-related museums, collections, exhibitions, and memorials.
Military/Navy in the United Kingdom 1066	Muxes 1108
The history of discrimination against LGBTQ peoples in the British armed forces and the fight for inclusion.	An indigenous “third gender” in a Mexican Zapotec community.
Sidebar: Merchant Navy
Mishima, Yukio (1925–1970) 1069
Internationally recognized Japanese writer whose body of work includes homosexually themed novels.
Misk al-Ghazal (1988; Hanan al-Shaykh) 1072
Portrayal of female homosexuality in this modern Arabic novel and the critical reception of its English translation, Women of Sand and Myrrh (1989).
Moche Pottery 1076
The ceramic tradition of the Moche culture of the Central Andes between 200 and 900 CE, and debates about examples depicting “homosexual” acts.
Molly Houses 1080
Gathering places for homosexual men in early eighteenth-century London.
	N
	Namibia 1115
	A historical and contemporary look at LGBTQ issues in this southern African nation.
	Nationalism and Sexuality in Europe 1118
	The impact of nationalism on nonnormative expressions of sexuality in Europe, from the French Revolution to the twenty-first century.
	Sidebar: Federico García Lorca and the Spanish Civil War
	Naz Foundation International 1128
	A prominent LGBT and HIV/AIDS advocacy organization working primarily in South and Southeast Asia.

Sidebar: Humsafar Trust: India's Oldest LGBT Organization
Neoliberalism in Africa	1132
The impact of neoliberal policies on the African LGBTIQI rights movement.
Neoliberalism in Latin America	1138
The impact of neoliberal policies on Latin America's LGBTI communities.
New Media in Asia	1142
The impact of digital technologies on LGBT populations in Asia.
The Nicaraguan Revolution	1147
LGBTI activism in Nicaragua from the 1960s to 1990, during the civil war and the Sandinista government that followed.
Nigeria	1150
The status of the LGBT community in this West African nation.
Nkoli, Simon (1957–1998)	1156
Prominent South African anti-apartheid, gay rights, and AIDS activist.
Nuzhat al-Albāb Fīmā Lā Yujad Fī Kitāb (ʿAlmad ibn Yūsuf al-Tifāshī)	1157
Thirteenth-century Arabic manuscript that classifies various sexual behaviors, including both male and female same-sex practices.
O
Offences Against the Person Act (1861)	1161
The application of this British law to prosecute sodomy both in the United Kingdom and in its colonial holdings.
The Order of Chaeronea	1165
Secret society of homosexuals founded by George Cecil Ives in Great Britain in the early 1890s.
Orgasm and Orgasmology	1168
Cultural perceptions of and research on the orgasm, particularly as they relate to queer bodies.
Orientalism in Gay Pornography about the Middle East	1172
The manner in which Orientalism and pink-washing influences gay pornography made in—and about—the Arab world.
Otaku Sexualities in Japan	1177
Debates around the queerness of fan enthusiasm for Japanese media, particularly manga and anime.
Ottoman and Persian Miniature Paintings	1181
Evidence of homoeroticism in the visual art of the Ottoman and Persian Empires.
P
Pacific Island and Pacific Island
Diaspora Identities	1187
The historical and contemporary situation of transgender persons and same-sex practices in the Pacific Islands and in Pacific Island diasporas. Sidebar: Ritualized Same-Sex Practices in Melanesia
Pakistan, “Queer”	1194
The use of the term queer in Pakistan, including related activist groups and the indigenous designation khwaja sira .
Parada do Orgulho LGBT de São Paulo, Brazil	1197
One of the world's largest pride parades and its role in Brazilian LGBT politics.
Parenting Rights in North America	1199
The history and current status of LGBTQ rights pertaining to adoption, surrogacy, fostering, and custody in Canada and the United States.
Pasolini's Cinematic Adaptation of A Thousand and One Nights	1204
The misrepresentation of women, homosexuals, and Middle Eastern culture in the first Western movie adaptation of A Thousand and One Nights , produced in 1974.
Penis	1213
The cultural weight of the penis in defining masculinity, its role in sexual pleasure, the ways it can be modified, and its relation to intersex and trans bodies.
People Like Us (PLU)	1221
An early LGB organization in Singapore, established in 1993.
Performance Artists in Latin America	1223
An overview of important queer performers, with a particular focus on those in Brazil, Chile, Argentina, Peru, Puerto Rico, and Mexico.

Queer Themes in Italian Neorealist Cinema 1321	Rituals and Same-Sex and Trans Experience 1383
The depiction of queer characters in movies produced in Italy in the post–World War II period until the early 1950s.	The complex concept of “ritual” and its expressions in various LGBTQ+ communities globally.
Queer Theorists 1323	Roopbaan 1390
The scholars defining and debating the diverse field known as queer studies.	Bangladesh’s first gay magazine in Bengali, published in 2014.
Queer Theory, African 1333	Sidebar: Hijras in Bangladesh
The emerging field of study that encompasses an expanded understanding of LGBTI persons in Africa.	Rüling, Anna (1880–1953) 1392
	Lesbian journalist who was one of the first German women to write about and speak on behalf of lesbians.
R
Rape, Corrective, in Africa 1341	Rural Queer Communities, US 1393
The use of rape to “cure” women with nonnormative sexual identities in Africa.	The experience of LGBTQ individuals in rural US communities, both historically and in modern times.
Refugees and Asylum in Africa 1342	Rural Queerness 1396
The unique challenges faced by African LGBTQI individuals forced to migrate in response to persecution in their countries of origin.	Scholarly debate regarding the state of queer individuals in rural spaces globally, including depictions in movies and literature.
Refugees and Immigration Policies 1346	Russian Gay Propaganda Law 1400
The history and current policies regarding LGBT refugees and asylum seekers.	Law passed in 2013 that makes it illegal to promote nontraditional sexual relations among minors in the Russian Federation.
Religion and Same-Sex Behaviors: Christianity .. 1353
The theology on, and practice of, same-sex acts in Christian traditions, both historically and in modern times.	S
Religion and Same-Sex Behaviors: Islam 1363	Sacred Band of Thebes 1405
The historical and modern perspective on same-sex behaviors, both culturally and legally, in Islam.	An ancient Greek battalion supposedly consisting of pairs of male lovers and their beloveds.
Religion and Same-Sex Behaviors: Judaism 1370	Samoan Fa’afāfine 1408
Perspectives on homosexual behavior and gender variance in Jewish traditions.	Samoans who are biologically male but whose gendered behaviors are significantly more feminine than is normative for men in Samoan culture.
Rescalvo, Sònia (1946–1991) 1377	Sappho, Nineteenth-Century Rediscovery of 1410
Transsexual whose murder at the hands of neo-Nazis spurred trans activism and reforms against hate crimes in Barcelona, Spain.	The association of the ancient Greek poet with lesbian desire in the nineteenth century, with a particular focus on the Sappho-inspired work Long Ago by Michael Field.
Resorts 1379	Scandals in Europe 1412
The development and culture of various resorts around the world that cater particularly to an LGBTQ+ clientele.	Major scandals involving same-sex relationships within European government in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries.
Sidebar: Houseboys at Resorts

Scouting	1415	Sexology in Asia	1465
The controversies around the policies of the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, and related organizations regarding sex and gender identity, with a focus on North America and Europe.		The study of sexual science and its impact on queer subjectivities in the Asian context.
Section 377 and Section 377A	1419	Sexperts and Sex Education in the West	1473
The history of, and efforts to overturn, British colonial penal codes against same-sex sexual activity in both Britain and its former colonial holdings.		The impact of sex research, advice, and education on perceptions of nonnormative sexualities, both historically and in the twenty-first century.
Section 377 in South Asia	1424	Sexual Revolution in Europe	1478
The impact of this British colonial code used to prosecute same-sex sexual practices specifically in South Asia.		The impact on the LGBTQ community of the mid-twentieth-century shift of European attitudes about sex and greater sexual freedoms.
Senegal	1428	Sexual Revolution in the United States	1483
A historical and contemporary look at LGBTQ issues in this West African nation.		The impact on the LGBTQ community of the mid-twentieth-century shift of American attitudes about sex and greater sexual freedoms.
Sex Reassignment Surgery in Asia	1430	Sharaf (1997; Sun‘allah Ibrahim)	1486
The popularity and availability of this surgical procedure in various Asian countries. Sidebar: Jianshun Xie: The “First” Chinese Transsexual		Novel that connects homosexuality with globalization to suggest that both entail a loss of honor for the average Egyptian man.
Sex Reassignment Surgery in Iran	1434	Shifting Sexual Norms in Nineteenth-Century Iran	1491
The religious rationale that allows Iranians to undergo sex-change operations in a country where same-sex sexual behavior is illegal.		The change in Iranian society from cultural acceptance of sexual relationships between grown men and adolescent boys to the delegitimization of this practice.
Sex Tourism in Asia	1437	Sins against Nature in Colonial Latin America	1494
The status and impact of LGBT tourism to Asia.		The colonial prosecution of crimes grouped together under the term sodomy in Latin America from the fifteenth to the nineteenth centuries. Sidebar: Juana Aguilar: Hermaphroditism and Colonial Courts
Sex Tourism in Latin America and the Caribbean	1443	Situational Homosexuality	1501
The state of queer sex work in various countries in Latin America and the Caribbean, as well as of organizations that support queer sex workers.		A term used to describe same-sex sexual activity that occurs under specific circumstances rather than as part of a homosexual lifestyle.
Sex Tourism in the Middle East	1452	Slavery and Sodomy in Brazil	1507
The ways in which Orientalism has influenced the sex tourism industry, with a particular focus on the countries of Lebanon, Israel, and Morocco.		Same-sex relations between slaves and their masters or free men in colonial Brazil.
Sex Work in Asia	1455	Sodomy Laws in the United States	1512
Terminology and gender in studies of “queer and trans sex work” in Asia.		The history of US laws against sodomy and the legal battle to decriminalize it. Sidebar: The Sodomy Case against Nicholas Sension
Sex Work/Sex Tourism/Sex Trafficking in Africa	1462
Africa, particularly North Africa, as a destination for European sex tourism, and Europe as a hub for the sex trafficking of Africans, with a particular focus on gay sex workers. Sidebar: The Quiet Violence of Dreams (2001; K. Sello Duiker)

Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz (1648–1695) 1518
Iconic nun, poet, and scholar, known as the Mexican “Tenth Muse,” who manifested same-sex desires in her writings.
South Africa 1522
A historical and contemporary look at LGBTQ issues in Africa’s southernmost nation.
Sidebar: Bev Ditsie (1971–)
Sidebar: Inxeba (2017; John Trengove)
Southern Comfort Conference 1531
The largest convention for trans and gender-nonconforming persons and their families in the United States.
Spectra Project 1534
US-based charity supporting LGBTQ refugees in Turkey.
Sports and Sexuality in Latin America 1536
The culture of sports and masculinity in Latin America and its impact on LGBTQ athletes.
Sports, Women in, Africa 1542
The challenges faced by African female athletes, particularly lesbian and queer athletes.
Sidebar: Caster Semenya (1991–)
Stone Butch Blues (1993; Leslie Feinberg) 1546
Novel about an American lesbian’s transition to a trans man.
Stonewall Riots, International Effects of 1548
The global impact of the 1969 riots at the Stonewall Inn, which marked a symbolic turning point in gay rights activism.
Strange Fruit 1555
An ethnically diverse queer collective that became the main hub of queer-of-color activism in the Netherlands during its years of activity from 1989 to 2002.
Sufi Treatment of Same-Sex Relations in Poetry and Prose 1556
Homerothic expressions in the literature of Islamic mysticism.
Sunil Babu Pant and Others v. Nepal Government (2007) 1562
Landmark court case that paved the way for legal recognition of “third gender” identity and broadened the rights and protections of Nepal’s LGBTQ community.
	T
	tatiana de la tierra (1961–2012) 1567
	Colombian writer integral to the creation of the 1990s Latina lesbian magazines esto no tiene nombre and connoción .
	Thai K-Pop 1570
	The impact of this popular music genre on queer Thai identity.
	Theater, Queer 1573
	The history and current state of gay, lesbian, and queer theater, focusing on the United Kingdom and the United States.
	Third Genders 1581
	An umbrella term for individuals in diverse cultures who fall outside of traditional, primarily Western, gender binaries of “male” and “female.”
	Thomas/Thomasine Hall Court Case (1629) ... 1589
	The case against an English indentured servant accused of violating gender norms in the Colony of Virginia in the early seventeenth century.
	A Thousand and One Nights 1592
	The impact of the French and English versions of this collection of tales on Western views of Eastern sexuality, particularly the 1885–1886 edition by Richard Francis Burton.
	Sidebar: Same-Sex Relations in Arabic Versions of the Nights
	Tibet 1597
	The status of the LGBTQ community in this Central Asian autonomous region, including the impact of Chinese rule.
	Tom of Finland (1920–1991) 1601
	Finnish artist whose work portrayed strong, masculine gay men.
	Tongzhi 1603
	The development and usage of the Chinese word tongzhi , an umbrella term for people with nonnormative genders and sexualities in Hong Kong, Taiwan, and China.
	Tongzhi Literature, Taiwan 1609
	A genre of Chinese-language literature featuring homosexuality that flourished in Taiwan starting in the 1960s.

Trans Issues in Africa	1614	Tuqus al-Isbarat wa-al-Tabawwulat (1994; Sa'dallah Wannous)	1663
The state of trans people in several different African countries as well as the work of activists to advance trans rights.		A modern Syrian play set in nineteenth-century Damascus that includes the first overt and serious dramatization of homosexuality in Arab theater.
Sidebar: Signs of Progress for Trans Individuals in Africa
Sidebar: Key Dates in Trans Activism in Uganda
Transfeminism	1619	Turkish Baths	1667
The intersections of feminism and trans activism.		The history of this Ottoman cultural tradition and its renaissance as a queer space in modern times.
Transgender Identity in Iranian Cinema	1623	Two-Spirit	1669
Examines the portrayals of female-to-male (FTM) and male-to-female (MTF) cross-dressing and transsexuality in Iranian cinema.		A term used by North American Indigenous peoples to refer to nonnormative sexual or gender identities.
Transgender Muslims	1627
Descriptions of the various categories of transgendered peoples and their status in Islamic societies.
Transgender Organizations in Mainland China, Hong Kong, and Taiwan	1630
The most significant transgender organizations to emerge in these areas since the 1990s.
Transgendered Subjectivities in Contemporary Iran	1634
The status and cultural depictions of transgendered persons in Iran, with a focus on the period after the Islamic Revolution of 1979.
Transvestites/Transsexuals	1640
The Euro-American development of labels for those who choose to dress in the clothing of the opposite gender and those who feel they are in the wrong body for their gender.
Travel/Travelogues on the Middle East	1644
The promotion of the Middle East as an exotic destination for gay Western travelers.
Travesti and Trans Activism in Latin America and the Caribbean	1649
The groups advocating for the rights of travesti and trans persons and the various forms activism takes in the region.
Sidebar: El Teje
Treason and Queerness	1658
The belief that homosexuality makes public servants more likely to engage in treason, including famous cases in Europe and the United States.
		U
		Ubuntu	1677
		A dominant philosophy in traditional African communities that holds the inalienable rights of the individual as central, and how this philosophy is being used to advocate for LGBTQI rights.
		Uganda	1681
		A historical and contemporary look at the LGBTQ community in this East African nation.
		Sidebar: Kabaka Mwanga (1866–1901)
		The Ugly Law (1961–1965; Denmark)	1687
		A law intended to crack down on male prostitution in Copenhagen, which was successfully challenged by Danish gay rights advocates.
		Urban Queerness	1688
		The role that urban milieus play in the production of queer culture, identity formation, and modes of socialization.
		V
		El Vampiro de la Colonia Roma (1979; Luis Zapata).....	1695
		Novella that was one of the first in Mexican literature to feature a gay protagonist.
		Vargas, Chavela (1919–2012)	1698
		Iconic Latin American singer who queered Mexican musical genres.

Vietnam War	1701	Wilde Trials, International Significance of	1731
American, Australian, and Vietnamese LGBT participation in the war and their impact on gay liberation movements in those countries.		The trials of Irish-born writer Oscar Wilde for “gross indecency” in 1895 and their impact both in England and the world.
Vietnam War, LGBTQ+ Veterans	1708	Witchcraft/Occult in Africa	1735
The postwar experiences of those who fought in this war from the United States, Australia, and New Zealand.		The practice of demonizing African LGBTQ individuals by associating same-sex practices with witchcraft and the occult.
Von Mahlsdorf, Charlotte (1928–2002)	1710	The Wolfenden Report	1739
Famous German transvestite.		Influential report published in Great Britain in 1957 recommending that homosexual behavior between consenting adults no longer be considered a criminal offense.
W–Z
W v. Registrar of Marriages (2013)	1713	Zheng He (1371–1433)	1743
Landmark court case granting transgendered persons the right to marry in Hong Kong.		Famed admiral and explorer in China’s Ming dynasty who was also a eunuch.
Waria	1717	Zhongxing Phenomenon	1745
The historical and contemporary position of male-to-female transgender subjects in Indonesia.		A popular movement of gender ambiguity among women in postmillennial East Asian Chinese-speaking societies in China, Hong Kong, and Taiwan.
“We Demand” Protest (1971)	1720	Zimbabwe	1750
The first major public demonstration by the Canadian gay and lesbian liberation movement, including an explanation of the ten demands made by the protesters.		The history and current status of LGBTQ individuals in this landlocked southern African nation.
The Well of Loneliness (1928; Radclyffe Hall)	1724	Zuqaq al-Midaq (1947; Naguib Mahfouz)	1753
A novel about a sexual invert, which was subject to obscenity charges upon publication.		Egyptian novel that employs a judgmental colonialist gaze in its portrayal of a character who engages in same-sex sexual activity.
Wilde in Sinophone Culture	1727	Geographic Index	1759
The importance of Oscar Wilde in general to Chinese culture and to its LGBT community in particular.		Subject Index	1763