Search features and functionality

Time-saving features such as multiple search paths, browse options and limiters allow users to pinpoint results quickly. Increasing the speed and the efficacy of teaching and research, users can store results and save notes in a named user account across sessions:

- Basic Search
- Advanced Search by index types – Entire Document, Article Title, Caption, Contributor Name, Keyword
- Browse by Issue or Contributor
- Sophisticated Image Viewer – see results in full screen. Grab, pan, zoom, and crop images.
- Marked List and Search History
- Save, Print, Bookmark and Email results
- Gale named user account to save searches, results and notes between sessions
- All articles and image captions are fully text searchable with hit-term highlighting
- Fuzzy Search – low, medium, high
- Limit Searches by Publication Date, Article Type or Illustration Type
- Search article genres including: Adventure; Biographies & Autobiographies; Human Interest; Humour; Love and Marriage; Mystery, Suspense, and Spy; Politics, Money and Industry; Sports; Stage, Screen and Radio; True Crime; Voices of the People; War; and Westerns
